2-20-2009 – Motor Vehicle Death: Rebecca Nelson Case Maple Grove

Seven years ago, Rebecca Nelson, beloved wife and mother of two young children, died as the result of a tragic incident. On February 20th, 2003 Maple Grove Police responded to a call of a woman down at the Maple Grove Community Center. Due to the nature of Rebecca's injuries, the incident appears to be the result of an unfortunate motor vehicle accident. Over the past seven years, numerous leads have been pursued but the case remains unsolved.

The Maple Grove Police Department is asking for the community's help. They are requesting that anyone with information about this incident, or knowledge about who may be involved, to please contact Crime Stoppers of Minnesota. Your assistance is greatly appreciated, and will aid this family in obtaining closure and peace of mind.
