9-10-2009 – Backyard Robberies in Minneapolis Neighborhood

Minneapolis Police are seeking information leading to the arrest and conviction of suspects involved in backyard robberies from the first weekend in September 2009.

In these two incidents the suspects targeted late night backyard gatherings in the Hale neighborhood in South Minneapolis. One of the suspects was armed with a handgun and in the second incident early Sunday morning a victim was shot following a confrontation with the suspects. The victim is recovering at HCMC.

Over the weekend a caller did contact Minneapolis 911 Center and stated that he had recovered a cell phone belonging to one of the victims. Police are still asking that person to come forward and turn the phone over to Police.

The suspects in the 10th Avenue South case are described as black males 14-18 years old, about 6' tall with light builds. The suspects in the Chicago Avenue case are described as black males, 14-18 years old, 5' 6" – 5' 8" tall with light builds. In both cases the suspects were wearing sweatshirts with the hoods up and bandanas over their faces.

If you have any information regarding these two crimes please contact Crime Stoppers of Minnesota.
